Purpose of the processing

The Summer School 2022 “Sustainable Pharmacy” pilot project for initiating international research collaborations in the field of sustainable pharmacy at the University of Freiburg in the early career stages (Early Career Researchers/PhD’s). For this purpose, the Summer School 2022 “Sustainable Pharmacy” is receiving funding from the Joachim Herz Stiftung until 30 November 2022.

It is necessary to collect and process personalized data of applicants for the application, the selection of candidates for the Summer School.

The data collected in the context of the project are processed only for these purposes and are held in strict confidence.

Legal basis for the processing:

- Art. 6 Abs. 1 Unterabs. 1 lit. e i.V.m. Abs. 3 i.V.m. § 12 LHG
- Art. 6 Abs. 1 Unterabs. 1 lit. b DSGVO (process and pre-contract tasks)
- Art. 6 Abs. 1 Unterabs. 1 lit. a, Art. 7 DSGVO (voluntary permission & data)

Duration of data retention or criteria for determining the duration

If your application is not successful, your personal data will be promptly destroyed or deleted no later than six months after the conclusion of the application process (31. December 2022).

If your application is successful, your data will be destroyed or deleted six months after the end of the project term (30. June 2023).

For purposes of financial accounting and in the area of the university's Financial Transactions Office, your personal data will be deleted at the end of the legal retention periods, which arise in particular from the Baden-Württemberg State Budgetary Regulations (Landeshaushaltsordnung – LHO), the German Commercial Code (Handelsgesetzbuch – HGB), and the German Tax Code (Abgabenordnung – AO). The retention periods are up to 10 years according to these regulations, generally 6 years for records and 10 years for accounting, cash book, and organizational documents according to the LHO.

Personal data may also be stored if this is provided for by European or national legislators in EU regulations, laws, or other provisions to which the controller is subject.

Categories of recipient

- Internal recipients: staff of the respective departments at the University, who will be in contact during the process of application, processing, as well as the members of the selection committee.

Your rights as a data subject

1. You have the right to access your personal data stored by the University of Freiburg and/or to obtain the rectification of inaccurate data.
2. You also have the right to obtain the erasure of your personal data or the restriction of their processing or a right to object to their processing.
3. If you have given us your consent, you also have the right to withdraw your consent at any time, although the lawfulness of any processing carried out on the basis of the consent prior to its withdrawal is thereby not affected. You may also withdraw your consent for the processing of individual data. In this case, please contact summerschool@pharmazie.uni-freiburg.de. In the event that you do not give us your consent or withdraw it, you will not suffer any disadvantages.

4. You have the right to lodge a complaint with a regulatory authority if you are of the opinion that the processing of your personal data is in violation of law. An example of such a regulatory authority is Baden-Württemberg's state commissioner for data protection and freedom of information: Landesbeauftragte für den Datenschutz und die Informationsfreiheit Baden-Württemberg, Königstraße 10a, 70173 Stuttgart, Email poststelle@ldi.bwl.de (<https://www.baden-wuerttemberg.datenschutz.de/>).

5. If you wish to assert your rights as a data subject against the University of Freiburg, please contact datenschutz@uni-freiburg.de.

Information on the right to object in accordance with Art. 21(1) EU-GDPR

You have the right, on grounds relating to your particular situation, to object at any time to the processing of your personal data carried out on the basis of Art. 6(1)(e) EU-GDPR (processing of data in the public interest).
